* SPECIAL PRESS RELEASE, 05-21-2015*

Ravalli County Sheriff Hoffman announced today that the third Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) Academy will conclude on Friday, May 22nd. CIT is a forty hour program aimed at law enforcement and first responders to teach intervention tactics for people in mental health crisis. This academy featured law enforcement, 911 operators, detention officers, and mental health professionals from around western Montana.

This academy is hosted and facilitated by the RCSO and Riverfront Mental Health. The curriculum is instructed by local law enforcement and mental health providers. The academy culminates with scenario based training, where students will have the opportunity to apply the tools they have learned through the week to provide a realistic response and more positive outcome for the consumer.

For more information about Montana CIT or this academy, contact Undersheriff Steve Holton at 406-375-4060.
