* Special Press Release 06-24-2015 ****

Ravalli County Sheriff Chris Hoffman and Ravalli County Office of Emergency Management Director Erik Hoover announced today that open burning within Ravalli County will be closed at 12:01 a.m. Thursday, June 25th, 2015, by County Resolution of the Board of County Commissioners.

Recreational fires measuring less than 48 inches in diameter are allowed as long as they are attended until they are completely extinguished. All recreational fires must be constructed in cleared or bare areas surrounded by a nonflammable structure. The fire must not spread beyond the established ring, pit, grate, or container. The person attending the fire must have a suitable source available to extinguish the fire.
